EASTER

- Fixing the date on which the Resurrection of Jesus an Eastern and a Western position can be distinguished.
- In the West the Resurrection of Jesus was celebrated on the first day of the week, Sunday, when Jesus had risen from the dead.
- Easter was always celebrated on the first Sunday after the 14th day of the month of Nisan.

EASTER SYMBOLS

- Dogwood Trees. Even though Easter isn't at the same time every year, these trees typically bloom on or very close to Easter.
- Easter lilies are symbolic of new life, as well as purity.
- In many parts of the world, hot cross buns are a traditional food for Good Friday, which is the day Jesus was crucified on a cross
- Chicks are a common symbol of Easter. Because baby chicks are born by hatching from an egg.
- Because rabbits are so fertile and baby bunnies abound during the spring, they have long been viewed to symbolize fertility.

EASTER SYMBOLS

- Butterflies are symbols of the resurrection of Jesus.
- Easter baskets are symbolic nests, which of course link directly to the spring theme of fertility and new life.
- Easter Eggs are a universal symbol of fertility. Eggs must be cracked open for new life to emerge.
- New Easter Outfits and Bonnets are symbolic of rebirth and new life.

- Sell like hot cakes – идти нарасхват
 - Everyone in my family loves my cakes that are selling like hot cakes.
- To be in a jam – быть в затруднительном положении
 - My mother let me bake Easter biscuits with a jam. I had broken mom's favorite jar of jam. I was in the jam. And when my mom phoned me I understood that I would be in a jam.

DIFFERENCES IN THE MALE AND FEMALE SPEECH

- Male speech is more rude and with arrivals (usually play), female communication is more superficial and with feelings.
- Women use every opportunity to translate the conversation about business into a conversation about feelings and relationships.
- Men, on the contrary, evaluate this as a distraction and try to translate conversations about feelings and relationships into some kind of business construct: "What are we talking about?" At least at work, a man needs business, not feelings.

Woman - "how do you feel about it, what did you think."

Man - "where, when, how much, what are the reasons and what follows from this?";

- The thinking processes of men and women are different from each other.
- Men usually think big, having a good orientation in space. The man's thought is built more accurately and is subject to the general laws of logical thinking.
- A woman, on the other hand, often thinks completely irrationally from the point of view of logic, relying more on her own feelings and intuition.
- And if at the root of a man's thinking is the word "rationality", then in a woman the word "emotionality" is found in this place. It is because of this difference between men and women that misunderstandings arise.

«A man thinks in verbs and nouns, and a woman thinks in adjectives». OLEG ROY.

- When talking about an event, a man is more likely to describe its objective meaning. He is secretive in personal matters, but he considers himself a great expert in everything in a row and willingly broadcasts to a grateful woman about how the world works.

- A woman is more inclined to talk about her experiences, about acquaintances, relationships with them and other "narrow-minded" things - as a result, she almost always starts talking about pressing problems.

- In business relationships, women know how to be no less logical than men, they know how to formulate their theses, give reasons and draw conclusions just as well as men. At the same time, in personal relationships, women tend to speak more impulsively and emotionally, recalling a large number of extraneous details, sometimes overdoing it with digressions, in fact behaving demonstratively, simply attracting attention to themselves.

- A man and a woman are looking for different things for themselves in communication with colleagues and friends.
- A woman pays more attention to having support in her team or a company of friends, to establish mutual understanding.
- A man, on the subconscious level, is more focused on being the first and the best.
