Confirmation of stay of Prof. Halyna Alekseieska at the Kiel Institute

Prof. Halyna Alekseieska has visited the Kiel Institute for the World Economy from 1st October 2024 to 31st October 2024 during her stay at the University Kiel. She worked on international tax policy practices for shipping companies and monetary policies of the ECB and the National Bank of Ukraine during wartime, capitalizing on the vast opportunities of the ZBW – Leibniz Information Centre for Economics (one of the world's largest libraries focused on economics), and informed her research through discussions with various economists both at the University and the Kiel Institute.
